from Charlottesville, where they went to secure the annual game between Virginia and North Carolina for Norfolk next year. If the advisory committee decides to play the game in this city the Lafayetta Field Association has guaranteed that it will put in 5,000 extra seats, and will be prepared to handle a crowd of from 10,00 to 30,000 people.

"We did not go there bogging for the game." said Mr. Taylor, upon his return to-day, "We simply demanded it. We said that we didn't want the game every year, but were willing to share it every other year with Richmond. The Richmond people are thinking of building new grounds, so that they may be able to handle a blg crowd as well as they are handled on Lafayette Field. People who attended the game here between the Indians and Virginia, and that between North Carolina and Georgetown, and also saw the Virginia-Carolina game in Richmond, know all about the difference in the sways the blg crowd, were handled in the respective cities.

"I impressed upon Dr. Christian, the faculty member of the athlette advisory committee, the fact that Norfolk had the strongest alumni association of the University of all other cities, not only in the State, but in the country, and also that Norfolk sent annually more students to the University than any other city in Virginia. I told him Norfolk simply had to have the game on next Thanksgiving Day—that there was no further question about it."

Mr. Taylor and Mr. McCullough re-

Day-that there was no turner question about it."

Mr. Taylor and Mr. McCullough roturned perfectly satisfied with the result of their visit, and they are confident that the big annual game between the rival Southern colleges will hereafter be divided, alternately, between Norfolk and Richmond. MOTHERS RESIST.

MOTHERS RESIST.

Special Agent Maybee, of a Richmond Home for Infants, was in the Police Court to-day as witness against two mothers, whom he wished ordered to turn their children over to him.

The mothers were Bessie Hebdon, aged twenty, of No. 32 Mariner Street, and Mary Thomas, thirty-three years old, of Nowcastle Street. Mrs. Priscilla Asmus, mother of the Hebdon woman, was with her daughter and carried the latter's two-months'-old baby. The hearing was dramatic to the point of tragedy, and the women became hysterical when Justice Simmons ordered them to give up the children. Some one advised the women to take an appeal to the Corporation Court. They had no counsel, and did not know how to go about it, but Court Clerit Darden helped them out by noting the appeal for them. Judge Hanckel put the mothers under bond to present the children in court Monday. Mr. Maybee is making a thorough search of Norfolk to get children out of questionable surroundings.

From what has come to the knowledge the authorities, several pistol shots were fired from the wagen, and there was good deal of whooping and yelling all a good deal of whooping and yelling all the way along the road. A county officer says there is also evidence of a more serious offense on the part of one or more of the occupants of the wagon. The worst of the disorder happened in the neighborhood of Salem Church, where a lot of young school girls were passed, and the Princess Anne officials say they will leave nothing indone to get all the evidence. It is possible that a number of warrants may be issued.

by Sprays or other Local Applications.

Catarrh is not, as is generally believed, a local disease, but is due to sen fous causes deep-seated in the blood. Blood Taint and Lowered Vitality are the conditions which give rise to Catarrh and sprays, washes, smoking prep-arations or other local remedies cannot do more than temporarily relieve the symptoms and can never reach and cure the disease itself. Many doctors direct their efforts to relieving the mere symptoms of Catarrh, treating it as a strictly local disease and totally losing sight of the real causes that underlie the outward signs of this malady. Catarrh, if not promptly arrested and cured, may cause consumption or lead to very serious diseases of the diseases. eases of the digestive organs.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) cures Catarrh quickly, thoroughly and permanently. Its curative properties act directly on the blood, driving out the poison, purifying and strengthening the whole system. It relieves im-mediately the disgusting symptoms of Catarrh, such as hawking, spitting, nose bleeding, ringing in the ears, the dropping of catarrhal matter into the throat, sick stomach, etc. It absolutely and permanently cures all forms of Catarrh—Catarrh of the Nose, Ear, Throat, Eyes, Lungs, Stomach, Liver or Kidneys. If you have any of the symptoms of Catarrh, don't waste time and money on worthless local remedies, but get B. B. B.——the medicine that is guaranteed to cure.
